The Thaw

By: Henry David Thoreau

I saw the civil sun drying earth's tears

Eye Sawing, civil war soldiers with sun flag,
Blow dryer, earth's tears

Her tears of joy that only faster flowed,

Hair tears, oven joy soap, teeth hat, onion leaves,
Fastener running, flowing faucet head

Fain would I stretch me by the highway side,

Fat Vain, wood eye, stretching man, bicycle teeth,
Highway slide

To thaw and trickle with the melting snow,

Tooth thawed chicken, measuring tape teeth, Melting snow

That mingled soul and body with the tide,

Teeth Hat mink coat, soul food and,
body measuring tape, teeth tide soap

I too may through the pores of nature flow.

Eye tooth hula hoop, mayo throw-up, teeth pimple,
Oven trees with net, flowing faucet

But I alas nor tinkle can nor fume,

Butt eye, atlas map, nar (pomegranate), tin can pickle,
Soda can nar, fume with fish

One jot to forward the great work of Time,

One finger, juice shot, tooth, flower rolling, teeth,
Cheese grater, wok pan oven, tea clock

'Tis mine to hearken while these ply the loom,

Two tea bags, landmine, tooth heart soda can,
Whale, teeth snake, plywood teeth lamb

So shall my silence with their music chime.

Soap shell, mouse one eye, silencer, measuring tape,
Teeth hair, music (piano) wind chime
